

Counsel Financial Sponsors Keynote Speaker, Lee Corso, at FJA Workhorse

Law firm lender continues long-time support of Florida trial lawyer organization

WILLIAMSVILLE, NY (PRWEB) February 27, 2017 -- Law firm funding company Counsel Financial announced that it is set to sponsor the upcoming Florida Justice Association's Workhorse Seminar, taking place February 28 through March 3 in Orlando, Florida. The Workhorse Seminar is an intensive, five-day program that will present attorneys with strategies and techniques to employ in trying civil litigation cases while striving to secure the most favorable outcomes for their clients. The company is the official sponsor of the keynote address, given this year by American sports broadcaster, Lee Corso. Mr. Corso has been an analyst on ESPN's College Game Day program since it began in 1987 and is a former college football coach.

Counsel Financial's founder and director, Joseph DiNardo, Esq., will present at the seminar during a session centered upon the "business of lawyering" on Tuesday, February 28. His talk, Six Key Ways to Finance Your Firm, will give an unbiased review of the various business models and corresponding financial options for those engaged in contingent fee practice. Mr. DiNardo stated, "It is of utmost importance that trial lawyers not lose sight of running their law firm like a business. During my presentation, I hope to impress upon my audience the idea that there are many financial management strategies available to plaintiffs' firms, and utilizing the model that best fits your practice can lead to tremendous success."

As the only law firm financing company exclusively endorsed by the American Association for Justice and The National Trial Lawyers, Counsel Financial is the preeminent source for law firm funding. Beyond financing, the company offers a multitude of benefits to its clients, such as assistance with budgeting and financial analysis, industry insight and co-counsel introductions.
